BARWOOD CONDOMINIUM IV ASSOCIATION, INC.
OF BOCA RATON

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Rules and Regulations hereinafter enumerated as to the property of Barwood Condominium IV Association, the condominium units and the condominium in general, shall be deemed in effect until amended by the Board of Directors of the Association and shall apply to and be binding upon all unit owners. The unit owners shall at all times obey these Rules and Regulations and shall use their best efforts to see that they are faithfully observed by their families, guests, invitees, servants, lessees, persons for whom they are responsible and persons over whom they exercise control and supervision. The Board of Directors may, from time to time, adopt and amend previously adopted Rules and Regulations governing the details of the operation, use maintenance, management and control of the common elements of the condominium and any facilities or services made available to the unit owners.

THE PRINCIPAL PURPOSE AND NECESSITY OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS IS TO POINT OUT TO UNIT OWNERS THAT IT IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF ALL UNIT OWNERS TO ACKNOWLEDGE THE RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES AND PRIVACY OF OUR NEIGHBORS. NORMAL CARE SHOULD ALWAYS BE SHOWN IN ANY ACTIVITY TO RESPECT THOSE RIGHTS.

1. RULES AND REGULATIONS
 - A. Violations should be reported in writing to the Board of Directors or to officers of the Association.
 - B. Violations will be called to the attention of the violating owners by an assigned representative of the Board of Directors.
 - C. Disagreements concerning violations will be presented in writing to, and be judged by, the Board of Directors who will take appropriate action.
 - D. After a written warning has been issued to an owner for a violation, if the violation has not been resolved in a timely manner, a fine may be imposed of up to $100 per violation.
 - E. Should you have any comments, complaints, etc., regarding the maintenance of the grounds and/or how the work is done, make your remarks to the Association president or to the maintenance supervisor. No direct comments are to be made to the maintenance worker.

2. FACILITIES

Refer to Barwood Improvement Association Rules and Regulations.

3. NOISE

Radio, Stereo and television sets should be turned down to a minimum volume between the hours of 11:00 pm and 8:00 am. All other unnecessary noises, such as loud talking, or arguments between owners and, or others should be avoided at all times of the day or night as this shall be considered disturbing the peace. Slamming of front and screen doors, car doors, honking of horns should also be avoided. Maintain sliding doors so they do not disturb the neighbors. Habitual offenders could possibly be fined if they continue to disturb the peace of others in the building.

4. PETS

No pets will be allowed except Service and Emotional Support Dogs with proper documentation from a health care provider.

- A. Animals owned by the unit owners shall not be allowed to commit a nuisance in any portion of the condominium building or grounds, except in the area specifically designated by the Barwood Improvement Association.
- B. Authorization to keep pets expires when a pet dies or is otherwise disposed of.
- C. All pets are to be carried by the owner in the elevator; if this is not physically possible, they should be restrained by a leash.
- D. Lessees, resident house guests or visitors MAY NOT at any time have a dog or any other pet at the condominium.
- E. Dogs must be walked to front of complex and must be picked up after.
- F. Weight limit is 20 pounds.

5. OBSTRUCTIONS AND EXTERIOR APPEARANCE

Sidewalks, entrances, driveways, catwalks, elevators, and stairways must be kept open and not obstructed in any manner. No sign, notice or advertisements shall be inscribed or exposed on or at any window or other part of the condominium except as shall have been approved in writing by the Board of Directors, nor shall anything be projected out of any window without similar approval. No radio or television aerial or antenna shall be attached to, or hung from the exterior of the condominium or the roof thereon.

The exterior of the condominium shall not be painted, decorated or modified by any owner without prior consent of the Board of Directors which may be withheld on pure aesthetic grounds within their sole discretion. No awnings, window guards, light reflective materials, hurricane or storm shutters, shall be used except as approved by the Board of Directors. Patio floors may be painted any color desired or covered with carpeting, otherwise standard exterior colors shall not be altered.

6. CHILDREN

Supervision must be exercised by an adult when visiting children are playing on the grounds. Children living with a resident 55 and over, must be 18 years of age or older.

7. DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY

Owners, nor their families or guests, shall not mark in any way or damage, destroy, or deface any part of the building. Unit owners shall be held responsible for any such damage.

8. CLEANLINESS

All garbage, refuse, and trash shall be deposited in plastic GARBAGE bags only, and tied tightly. Do NOT use paper bags to dispose of kitchen garbage into the dumpsters; they are not sanitary. All glass, plastic and metal cans must be carried to the trash room and placed into the BLUE recycling bin. All paper and light cardboard goes into the YELLOW bin. DO NOT put plastic bags in the recycle bins.

9. CATWALKS/PATIOS

No movable objects are to be placed on catwalks. No objects shall be hung from the railings of catwalks or window sills. No cloth, rugs, mops, etc. shall be hung up or shaken from catwalks. No objects shall be thrown over the railing of catwalks, nor shall any substances be swept from the catwalks over the exterior of the building.

There shall be no cooking, grilling, or barbecuing on Patios or Catwalks at any time.

10. DOOR LOCKS

Members must abide by Paragraph 13.5, RIGHT OF ENTRY INTO PRIVATE DWELLINGS IN EMERGENCIES, of the Declaration of Condominium which reads as follows:

In case of any emergency originating in or threatening any dwelling, regardless of whether the owner is present at the time of such emergency, the Board of Directors of the Association, or any other person authorized by it... shall have the right to enter such dwelling for the purpose of remedying or abating the cause of such emergency, and such rights of entry shall be immediate.

All owners must leave an emergency key with the Board of Directors that will be placed in a lock box for said emergency to be used when the owner is not in residence.

It is also recommended that if a unit owner is away for any length of time and leaves a car in their assigned parking area, that keys to that car also be left with a previously designated unit owner.

All screen doors must be maintained by the owner, painted and re-screened by the owner when necessary. If notified by the Board, the owner will have 30 days to complete the job. If the owner fails to comply, the Board will make appropriate repairs and bill the owner for the expense.

11. ATTIRE

Members, their families, and guests shall not use the common elements or clubhouse except in appropriate attire.

12. PLUMBING

Water closets and other plumbing shall not be used for any other purpose than those for which they are constructed, and no sweeping, rubbish, rags or other foreign substances shall be thrown therein. The cost of any damage resulting from misuse shall be borne by the unit owner.

Sinks or toilets not operating properly, and other minor plumbing problems within the private units must be resolved individually. If the problem lays within the main sewer system, the Association will take care of it.

However, if the Association calls a plumber for a problem connected with your unit, be sure someone is at home until the problem is resolved.

13. ROOF

Members are NOT PERMITTED on the roof for any purpose. Only A/C technicians and electrical contractors or roof maintenance personnel are authorized to access the roof. If a member is found to have gone on the roof for any reason, they may be subject to a fine. All air conditioning maintenance must be reported to the Board of Directors a day in advance, unless in an emergency repair, so the roof hatch can be unlocked at that time.

14. SOLICITATION

There shall be no solicitation by any person anywhere in the condominium for any cause, charity or any purpose unless specifically authorized by the Board of Directors.

15. PARKING

Each parking space is assigned as an appurtenance to a particular unit and shall be occupied only by their car, SUV or small pick-up truck. As such, each space may be used only by the owner, except when the owner has given written permission (with a copy to the Board) for use by another owner, lessee or resident guest. No owner may park in any space other than the one assigned without proper permission. Please make sure that your vehicles are parked within the painted lines and are pulled up close to the bumper. All vehicles shall be parked forward according to P.B.C. Sheriff's department, so do not back into your designated space.

16. HURRICANE PREPAREDNESS

Each unit owner who plans to be absent from his unit during the hurricane season must prepare his unit prior to departure by:

- A. Removing all furniture and plants from patio.
- B. Designating a responsible firm or individual to care for unit during his absence in the event the unit should suffer damage, and furnish the Board of Directors (or Secretary) with the name of such firm or individual. The designated firm or individual shall contact the Board of Directors for permission to install or remove shutters.
- C. Hurricane panels or shutters shall be installed only when there is indication that a hurricane may strike in this area. They may not be left on the windows for the entire season.

17. WASHING OF VEHICLES

No washing of vehicles with the hose is permitted in the garbage ramp area or parking stalls.

18. MAINTENANCE FEES

Maintenance Fees are due and payable on the first of each month. Checks are to be made payable to: Barwood Condominium IV Association. Payments received later than on the 15th day of each month are subject to a $25.00 penalty.

19. LOCKERS

Any stored item in your locker that is less than two feet from the ceiling must be removed. This is a Fire Code Regulation.

20. LEASING OR RESALE

The Declaration of Condominium for Barwood Condominium IV Association, Inc., which is filed on record in Palm Beach County, specified how leasing or sale of condominium units shall be handled, including the following:

- A. No Owner of a dwelling shall lease or sell his condominium unit to anyone without first giving notice in writing by registered or certified mail to the Board of Directors, or by personal delivery to the Secretary or the President of the Association.
- B. The letter notifying the Association of an owner's desire to lease or sell his dwelling must state the name, address, and employment or occupation of the prospective lessee or purchaser. A copy of the bona fide offer to lease or sell the dwelling must also be submitted.
- C. Application forms are available from the Association. Such application forms required by the Association for the use of its facilities shall be completely filled in and signed by the prospective lessee or purchaser. The application must be accompanied by a non-refundable administrative fee of one hundred ($100.00) Dollars to cover the Association Administration expense.
- D. In order to be considered as a prospective purchaser, the FICO Credit Score of the applicant must be at least 700 or higher. After reviewing the information concerning said purchaser, the association shall have up to 30 days to approve or reject the potential buyer. Except to the extent required by law, the Board is not required to provide the specific reasons for the disapproval, nor shall the Association be obligated, in that instance, to exercise its right of first refusal.
- E. The lease or sales contract must contain a covenant stating that the lessee or purchaser shall comply with all present and future Rules and Regulations of the Association.
- F. Sub-leasing by lessee is not permitted.
- G. Leases of condominium units by owners shall be limited to one (1) lease of not less than three (3) months nor more than four (4) months during any twelve (12) month period. This is subject to the exercise of discretion by the Board of Directors to extend such period in appropriate circumstances upon application pursuant to the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium for Barwood IV Condominium.

No person or persons shall occupy a leased apartment during the absence of the lessee.

H. Condo owners are restricted from leasing their unit for one year upon purchase and must adhere to leasing approvals and agreements of four months per any 12 month period.

21. REMODELING OR CONSTRUCTION TO A UNIT

The owner must inform the board before any work is to be done.

All contractors MUST BE LICENSED AND INSURED! A copy of the license and insurance must be given to the Board.

If you are on floors 2, 3, or 4, and you replace your flooring, sound proofing material must be placed under any flooring.

When any electrical or plumbing is moved or changed, the owner should obtain a permit and place it in his front window.

Failure to comply with the rules may result in an interruption of the work until the proper paperwork is provided to the Board.

PLEASE NOTE:

Non-compliance with the foregoing Rules & Regulations may cause the Board of Directors to inflict a fine of $100.00 on the unit owner.

ALSO:

Further Rules and Regulations regarding common areas, swimming pool, Recreation Center, tennis courts and other recreation areas, as well as common parking areas, are covered in the Barwood Improvement Association's Rules and Regulations.
