20. SALE OR LEASE

The Association shall have the option to purchase any Unit upon the same terms and conditions as are offered by the Unit Owner to any third person. Prior to the sale or transfer of any Unit to any person other than the transferor's spouse or member of his immediate family or wholly owned corporation, the Unit Owner shall notify the Association in writing of the name and address of the person to whom the proposed sale or transfer is to be made, the terms and conditions thereof together with a copy of the agreement for such sale or transfer and such other information as may reasonably be required by the Association. Failure to do so shall be deemed a breach hereof, and any sale or transfer in contravention of this Article shall be null and void and confer no right, title or interest to the intended purchaser or transferee. If the proposed sale is bona fide and the Association exercises its option with respect to same, the Association shall, within ten (10) days after its receipt of said notice and such supplemental information as it may reasonably require, deliver to the Unit Owner the deposit required under the terms of such agreement and shall then be obligated to close the sale of the Unit in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof. The Association may designate a third party to exercise this option as well. Failure of the Association to exercise the said option shall be stated in a certificate executed by the Association, which shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, by and at the expense of the proposed purchaser or transferee.

~~Units may shall not be leased after one year of ownership. and no leases or rentals after the effective date of this provision shall be permitted.~~ Any occupancy in the absence of the Owner or Owner's spouse, by any one other than the Owner's or Owner's spouse's children, siblings, parents or grandparents, in excess of thirty (30) consecutive days, shall be treated as a lease ~~in violation of this provision~~, regardless of whether there is an exchange or consideration for the use of the unit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Association shall have the option to lease or rent units owned by it in order to defray expenses associated with ownership of the unit. No lease shall be for a period of less than twelve (12) months, and the proposed lessees shall consist of not more than two (2) persons per bedroom in the unit to be leased. Subleases of Units are prohibited. Notwithstanding the lease of his Unit, the liability of the Unit Owner under this Declaration shall continue. All written notices to lease shall be accompanied by a copy of the lease and Addendum, a screening fee, and security deposit in the highest amounts permitted by law and such information as the Board may reasonably require. The Association has the right to require that a substantially uniform form of lease be used. The provisions of this subparagraph shall not be applicable to the Association. Notwithstanding anything herein or any rule or regulation of the Association to the contrary, the Association shall be irrevocably empowered without any limitation at all times, whether for permanent or temporary occupancy, to sell, lease, rent or transfer Units owned by the Association, for any period and under any terms to any lessees, purchasers or transferees without the consent of any person including the Association being required.

(1) Approval for Sales and Leases of Units. No sale, lease or conveyance of a Unit or of any interest therein shall be valid unless the sale, lease or conveyance receives the prior written approval of the Association.

The Association will not disapprove a conveyance which is not a sale, such as adding a spouse to the deed, or conveying to the owner's trust or children, without good cause. The Association will be entitled to request and receive full information to review whether a proposed conveyance is a sale.

All applicants must submit the Association's form application for approval, whether sale, conveyance or lease, which shall be accompanied by a screening fee and security deposit to the Association as the Association may set from time to time.

(2) "Good Cause" Disapprovals. Disapproval will be considered for "good cause" if based on any of the following:

a. The application and information submitted for approval on its face, or subsequent investigation thereof, indicates that the intended transfer or intended occupancy would violate any of the covenants and restrictions applicable to the unit or indicates that the person seeking approval intends to conduct himself in a manner inconsistent with the covenants and restrictions applicable to the unit;

b. The person seeking approval has been convicted of a felony of any kind or a misdemeanor involving physical threats, battery or lewd and lascivious behavior or the sale or use of illegal substances or prostitution;

c. The person seeking approval has a record of financial irresponsibility including without limitation, prior bankruptcies, foreclosures, untimely payments or bad debts, or has a current income insufficient to meet his or her fiscal responsibilities as a unit owner as reasonably determined by the Association Board of Directors;

d. The person seeking approval takes possession or occupies the premises prior to approval by the Association Board of Directors as provided herein;

e. The person seeking approval has a history of disruptive behavior, disregard for the rights and property of others or disrespect for this or another Association's Board of Directors "Rules and Regulations" as evidenced by his/her conduct in any social organizations or associations or in this association as tenant, unit owner or occupant;

f. The person seeking approval failed to provide the information, fees or appearances required by the Association Board to process the application in a timely, adequate manner as determined by the Board;

g. The unit owner requesting the approval has had fines assessed against him/her that have not been paid;

h. All assessments and other charges against the unit have not been paid in full;

i. The designated "primary occupant" demonstrates to the Association Board the physical or mental incapability to care for him or herself and cannot demonstrate to the Association Board the willingness or ability that he or she can have such care provided otherwise.

OR

j. The person seeking approval is putting less than 10% of the purchase price down in cash as part of the initial purchase.

If the Association Board of Directors disapproves a prospective transfer on the grounds for disapproval set forth in (a) through (j) above entitled "good cause", the Association Board shall have no duty to purchase the unit or to furnish an alternate purchaser, and the transaction shall not be made or the occupant not authorized to occupy the unit. The Association Board of Directors shall take any legal action necessary to enforce and support its position on these matters at the expense of the unit owner, including attorneys' fees. The expense, including attorneys' fees, will become a special assessment against the unit.

(3) Unauthorized Mortgages, Transfers of Ownership or Occupancy.

Any sale, lease, mortgage or other transfer of ownership, possession or occupancy not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Declaration shall be voidable unless subsequently approved by the Association Board of Directors. The Association shall take whatever legal steps necessary to enforce the terms of this Declaration; including but not limited to eviction, forced sale and fines against the unit owner(s).
